WEEKLY STATE SENTINEL Published every Thursday Morning, on a Mam-TWO DOLLARS PER YEAR, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE. HT Address, Post-paid, WALKER & COTTOM, J. C. WALKER, Proprietor.

Hon. Jesse D. Bright

This gentleman is now a visitant at this city, and may be found by his numerous friends at the Palmer House. His health seems excellent, and his spirits none the less fresh and buoyant for the labors undergone during the late session of Congress in his service as President of the Senate and Vice President of the United States. In every capacity in which Mr. BRIGHT has served the public, his efficiency has proved commensurate with the exigencies of the times, and equal to the most sanguine expectations of his admirers. Possessed of an indomitable will and an energy of intellect only equaled by a physical constitution of the most enviable power, Mr. B. has determinately pressed forward in the path of duty, dispelling every obstacle and overcoming every opposition. As the representative of this State, we have great cause to be proud of Mr. BRIGHT. He stands in the United States Senate, in point of ability and infinence, as the peer of the greatest statesmen of the Nation. When Indiana is
